information system maintained by the office that contains the following information:

(1) Geographic and population information provided in the official census report to the state by the United States Department of Commerce, Bureau of the Census, in reporting the 2000 decennial census of Indiana.

(2) Election history and supplemental geographic information compiled by the legislative services agency.

Sec. 4. As used in this chapter, "office" refers to the office of census data of the legislative services agency.

Sec. 5. (a) Any part of Indiana that has not been described as included in a district is included within the district that:

(1) is contiguous to the part; and

(2) contains the least population of all districts contiguous to that part according to the 2000 decennial census of Indiana.

(b) If any part of Indiana is described as being in more than one (1) district, the part is included within the district that:

(1) is one (1) of the districts in which that part is listed;

(2) is contiguous to the part; and

(3) contains the least population according to the 2000 decennial census of Indiana.

(c) If any part of Indiana is:

(1) described as being in one (1) district; and

(2) entirely surrounded by another district;

the part shall be incorporated into the district that surrounds the part.

(d) If any part of Indiana:

(1) is described as being in one (1) district; and

(2) is not contiguous to another part of the district that contains the majority of the population in the district;

the part is included with the contiguous district that contains the least population according to the 2000 decennial census of Indiana.

Sec. 6. The legislative services agency shall separately maintain and preserve in the GIS the descriptions and maps included in the 2000 decennial census of Indiana. The legislative services agency shall make those descriptions and maps available for public inspection during regular office hours and on the Internet.

Sec. 7. The official report and all official documents relating to the report of the 2000 decennial census are incorporated by reference into this article.

COMMITTEE REPORT

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Elections and Apportionment, to which was referred House Bill 1271, has had the same under consideration and begs leave to report the same back to the House with the recommendation that said bill be amended as follows:

Page 1, between the enacting clause and line 1, begin a new paragraph and insert:

"SECTION 1. IC 3-3-4 IS ADDED TO THE INDIANA CODE AS A NEW CHAPTER TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE UPON PASSAGE]:

Chapter 4. General Provisions Relating to Establishing Congressional Districts

Sec. 1. All terms and references to geographic units made in the descriptions of districts in this article:

- (1) have the same meanings as the terms have when used by the United States Department of Commerce, Bureau of the Census, in reporting the 2000 decennial census of Indiana as supplemented by geographic information compiled and documented by the legislative services agency; and
- (2) describe the same geographical boundaries as depicted by maps included in the GIS.

Sec. 2. As used in this chapter, "district" refers to a district described in IC 3-3-4.

Sec. 3. As used in this chapter, "GIS" refers to the geographic information system maintained by the office that contains the following information:

- (1) Geographic and population information provided in the official census report to the state by the United States Department of Commerce, Bureau of the Census, in reporting the 2000 decennial census of Indiana.
- (2) Election history and supplemental geographic information compiled by the legislative services agency.

Sec. 4. As used in this chapter, "office" refers to the office of census data of the legislative services agency.

Sec. 5. (a) Any part of Indiana that has not been described as included in a district is included within the district that:

- (1) is contiguous to the part; and
- (2) contains the least population of all districts contiguous to that part according to the 2000 decennial census of Indiana.

(b) If any part of Indiana is described as being in more than one (1) district, the part is included within the district that:

- (1) is one (1) of the districts in which that part is listed;

o
p
y

(2) is contiguous to the part; and

(3) contains the least population according to the 2000 decennial census of Indiana.

(c) If any part of Indiana is:

(1) described as being in one (1) district; and

(2) entirely surrounded by another district;

the part shall be incorporated into the district that surrounds the part.

(d) If any part of Indiana:

(1) is described as being in one (1) district; and

(2) is not contiguous to another part of the district that contains the majority of the population in the district;

the part is included with the contiguous district that contains the least population according to the 2000 decennial census of Indiana.

Sec. 6. The legislative services agency shall separately maintain and preserve in the GIS the descriptions and maps included in the 2000 decennial census of Indiana. The legislative services agency shall make those descriptions and maps available for public inspection during regular office hours and on the Internet.

Sec. 7. The official report and all official documents relating to the report of the 2000 decennial census are incorporated by reference into this article.
